

Who: Scouts and a Non Scout Buddy's (parents welcome)

What: Harlem Globetrotters Game

When: May 1st 6:30PM

Where: The Carlson Center

How much: Tickets are $33 dollars per person to see the game, BUT if a Scout brings a friend the cost goes down to $15 dollars for each of them, which works out to a deal of 55% OFF!! Parents are welcome to sign up for the $15 dollar rate as well (sorry other family members are $33).

Why: Have a great night and introduce a friend to Scouting! This evening is a Scout recruitment event meant for Scouts to bring friends and let them see Scouting up-close and personal. The Harlem Globetrotters are a world renowned basketball team that combines athleticism, theater and comedy out on the court.

How to Sign up: Scouts will need to fill in the section below with one part listing their information and one part listing their buddy's information. Parents who wish to attend the game please fill in the information below for EACH parent attending. The names of all who wish to participate at the $15 dollar price MUST be turned in and paid for no later than noon on April 26th, so the names can be passed on to the Globetrotters!
